NeoCon 2017

32 Collection

The 32 seating and table collection was inspired by the Philip Johnson designs for the landmark Four Seasons restaurant in New York, housed in the building designed by Mies van der Rohe. The number 32 refers to the restaurant's most powerful place in New York which was known to serve dignitaries and newsmakers daily.

The classic collection designed for dining and lounging with their beautifully tufted upholstery and elegant solid bar stock metal frames, offers a strong design aesthetic with minimal use of space; it is precisely proportioned and perfectly detailed.
