AIS Unveils New Day-to-Day™ Tables at NeoCon 2018

Leominster, MA – May 24, 2018 – AIS, a leading manufacturer of commercial office furniture and seating, unveils the brand-new Day-to-Day™ Tables collection at NeoCon 2018. The expansive product line delivers conferencing, meeting, training, nesting, occasional, and height-adjustable tables for all kinds of work and learning environments.

“Day-to-Day Tables are practical and approachable, bringing comfort and choice to support the dynamic needs of workers and students throughout the day,” Executive Vice President of Product Development Bill Stewich said.

The tables can be specified for a range of environments, from casual meeting rooms to private offices to open floor plans. Day-to-Day’s clean design and plentiful options allow easy configuration and specification. Many top shapes, more than 10 base options, 18 Grade A laminate selections and a variety of edge details make it easy to create a unified design for any space.

The product line pairs with AIS systems and casegoods to create seamless integration in interior environments.

Made at AIS’s manufacturing facility in Massachusetts, Day-to-Day™ Tables will be available starting in August 2018. The tables will ship within two to three weeks of ordering.

AIS unveils the new Day-to-Day™ Tables collection at NeoCon 2018 in the company’s permanent showroom, Suite 1086 (10th floor) at The Merchandise Mart in Chicago.
