CHICAGO, IL – Sossego, a distributor of modern Brazilian design, debuts its third international award-winning designer, Guilherme Wentz. Sossego is the exclusive US distributor of Guilherme's lighting designs in the US. Said Guilherme, "I try to bring lightness and simplicity to my designs as a way to change the spaces we live in. Instead of classic Brazilian references, casualness most interests me. There's a casual—yet complex to explain—lifestyle in Brazil and it is expressed in my work in a very subtle way."

At 30, Guilherme has quickly accumulated awards: the iF Design Award, Museu da casa Brasileira, and Idea Brasil. In 2016 he was named Rising Talent at Maison&Objet Americas and in 2017, won Talent on the Rise and was finalist in Accessories at the first Casa Vogue Design Awards.

The collection is crafted in his São Paulo studio. His medium includes hand-blown glass, wood, marble, and brass, with which he explores concepts and shapes found in nature.

Guilherme said, "I am very excited to join such an expert team that is trying to take Brazilian design to the world and is pushing us to think further and make it better. Besides that, am very honored to be alongside two great designers such as Aristeu Pires and Domingos Tótoro who have always inspired me."

The collection will be on display at the AD Show in New York, March 22-25 (Booth 215).

The Brazilian Embassy in Washington DC will host an exhibition to include Guilherme's designs in April.
