Waddell Display Solutions ReInvents the Display Case at NeoCon 2017

Greenfield, OH, May 2017 — GMI Companies announces their lineup of products being featured at NeoCon 2017, the World Expo of Office Furniture Solutions. GMI, the parent company of Ghent, Waddell, and VividBoard, will be showcasing their latest products on the seventh floor of the Merchandise Mart in booth #7-2054.

Waddell, the brand of GMI that has proudly manufactured handcrafted trophy and display cases for over a century, will be showcasing how Waddell is ReInventing the Display case; enter Pallet. Pallet introduces a restorative and residential look and feel to display furniture in an open office environment. Pallet allows users to configure their personal and collaborative workspaces and functions as both a way to display and to provide for the division of space without the need for permanent walls. It is offered double or single-sided to fit in an open environment or along a wall. The modular shelf's design can be used alone or together with multiple units ganged together. Pallet incorporates the feel of residential with commercial furniture quality, and truly sets the stage for the future of Waddell display solutions.

Pallet has entered the following awards: The Best of NeoCon 2017, 2017 Interior Design HIP Awards, both under the Office Accessories category, and The 2017 Metropolis Likes NeoCon Awards. View Pallet in person at NeoCon 2017 in Booth #7-2054.

GMI Companies will be hosting a cocktail hour on Monday, June 12, 2017, from 3:00 pm to 5:00 pm in Booth #7-2054. Garrett's popcorn and wine will be served. Stop by to see how GMI Companies is ReInventing how you think about whiteboards and display cases!
