Posted in Art & Design, Shopping and style by Madeline Nusser on June 15th, 2010 at 2:34 pm

The biggest design fair (700 showrooms and 40,000 visitors) with the worst (and most confusing) name NeoCon WTF (short for New Contract World's Trade Fair) kicked off yesterday and runs through June 16, featuring thousands of furniture items, textiles and colorful thingamabobs. While the expo's seminars, programs and lectures are mostly suited for folks in the corporate-design and interior design biz, some exhibits provide worthwhile eye-candy for any design-lover. Check out old standbys including Herman Miller, Steelcase and Maharam as well as newer faves, like FLOR. Then go back to your shoddy cubicle and try not to feel too depressed.
