Notes from NeoCon 2010

Posted on Monday, June 21st, 2010 in Design, Furniture, Trends

At NeoCon World's Trade Fair, visitors can preview thousands of the latest designs from more than 700 exhibitors.

Node by Steelcase

The first of two Silver awards went to FlexFrame™ workwall by Steelcase in the Files & Storage category. FlexFrame workwall is a wall-mounted, frame-based system that can be used in any space plan.

The product “activates” vertical spaces for high-performance, tailored applications of storage, information display and technology integration.

Topo by Coalesse, Steelcase’s premium life/work furnishings division, won the second Silver award for Steelcase in the Furniture Systems: Enhancements category.

With a new series of freestanding components, the award-winning Topo collection is uniquely clean-lined and easy to install while providing designers with a fresh palette of space-conserving options.

Node™ won an Innovation Award in the Education Solutions category. Built for many modes of learning, the node classroom chair is designed for easy transitions between lectures and group work.

The chair offers active learning environments for co-learning, co-creation and group discussion to cater to the modern classroom.
